

February 1, 2019

PALMER THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

invites you to its annual

FRANK B. MITCHELL
LECTURESHIP

The Reason for Our Hope:
The Church's Commission in Challenging Times

Guest Lecturer:

Rev. Dr. Marvin A. McMickle

President, Director of the Doctor of Ministry Program
& Professor of African American Religious Studies
Colgate Rochester Crozer Divinity School

10:00 am Lecture

12:30 pm Reception

1:30 pm Conversation with Dr. McMickle

Pinn Memorial Baptist Church

2251 N 54th St, Philadelphia, PA 19131
Rev. Dr. Jacob L. Chatman, Senior Pastor

The annual MITCHELL LECTURESHIP is the keystone lecture of Palmer Theological Seminary's celebration of African American History Month. It is named in honor of the Reverend Dr. Frank B. Mitchell, Jr., pastor of Pinn Memorial Baptist Church for over 40 years. Over the years of his ministry, he was responsible for guiding many new ministers into service. He directed many of them to Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary (now Palmer Theological Seminary) for their training. Each year, Mitchell Lecturers are invited to address issues relevant to the Church through the perspectives of African American theology and culture.

